

Position – Hardware Team Manager

Company Description

Roboteam is an established defense robotics company with a proven track record of creating impactful and innovative robotic technologies that saves lives on the battlefield. We have a fun start-up feel but with a meaningful mission related to national security and defense worldwide.

We are looking for a Hardware Development Manager with a passion to create engaging and high-quality products. if you are a technologist with a strong background in developing hardware and can lead and grow high-performance engineering teams through all aspects of product development lifecycle. We want you with us.

Key Responsibilities

Maintain, enhance, and grow a top talent engineering team. Be responsible for the overall product development lifecycle. Manage and execute against project plans and delivery commitments; Work closely with engineers and architects and manage subcontractors to develop the best technical design and approach. Instill best practices for Hardware development and documentation, assure designs meet requirements and deliver high-quality work on tight schedules.

Desired Skills/Experience

- B.Sc. in Electrical Engineering.
- Deep industry experience developing high-performance products.
- Experience in Systems Engineering for multidiscipline products.
- Hardware management experience.
- Proven success in building, motivating and retaining Hardware team.
- 10+ years experience leading hardware product development.
- Robust project planning/execution skills including estimating, scheduling, executing.
- Experience in Board design and layout (Power, Analog, High Speed)
- Experience in OrCAD Capture and Allegro PCB Designer environment.

Advantages

- Experience in developing Hardware of for robotics systems.
- Experience in the defense industry - significant advantage.
- Experience in ARM Cortex-A environment.
- Experience in designing SMPS circuits.
- Experience in designing drivers for BLDC motors.

Our Office Is Located at: Aharon Bart Street 22, Petah Tikva

Send your CV to: Info@robo-team.com

www.roboteam.com